

SUDAMÉRICA

Backpack on my shoulder, among the clouds

Period: March 2025 | Days: 18 | Budget: CHF 3000

Description: An adventurous journey through the surreal landscapes of South America, backpacking across the salt flats of the Salar de Atacama, the geysers and volcanoes of Bolivia, and the archaeological treasures of Peru, often at breathtaking altitudes. We explored colourful lagoons, fiery deserts, multicoloured mountains, and ancient cities.
